SPONSORSHIP

Keynote Speakers

Keynote speakers are a big conference draw, so they are promoted heavily throughout pre-event promotions, along with your name as the sponsor. Onsite, in addition to sponsor signage at the event, your logo will be prominently displayed on the dais above the speaker, and you'll have the opportunity to introduce them onstage.

Each of these include an opportunity for the sponsor to speak for up to 5 minutes at the beginning of the session, as well as introduce the speaker and of course, branding!

Tony Brigmon

Opening Keynote
Speaker - $5,000

As Southwest's Former "Ambassador of Fun", Tony Brigmon helped their corporate culture recognize and reward humor and creativity in a way that got serious results. Tony became an expert at using interactive fun to teach best practices. He is an astute observer of super performing human behavior and has earned recognition nationally and internationally for his presentation, training, and consulting work, always with the aim to maximize engagement, energize transformation, and enrich individual lives. Organizations are raving about Tony's conference presentations. Over the last several decades, Tony has worked with over 2,000 + organizations to energize and engage cultural transformation, employee engagement, leadership, customer service and more. Today, Tony draws on his experience as a former Southwest "insider" and his personal observations on positive high-performing individuals and organizations giving audience members practical ideas they can implement in their work and in their lives.

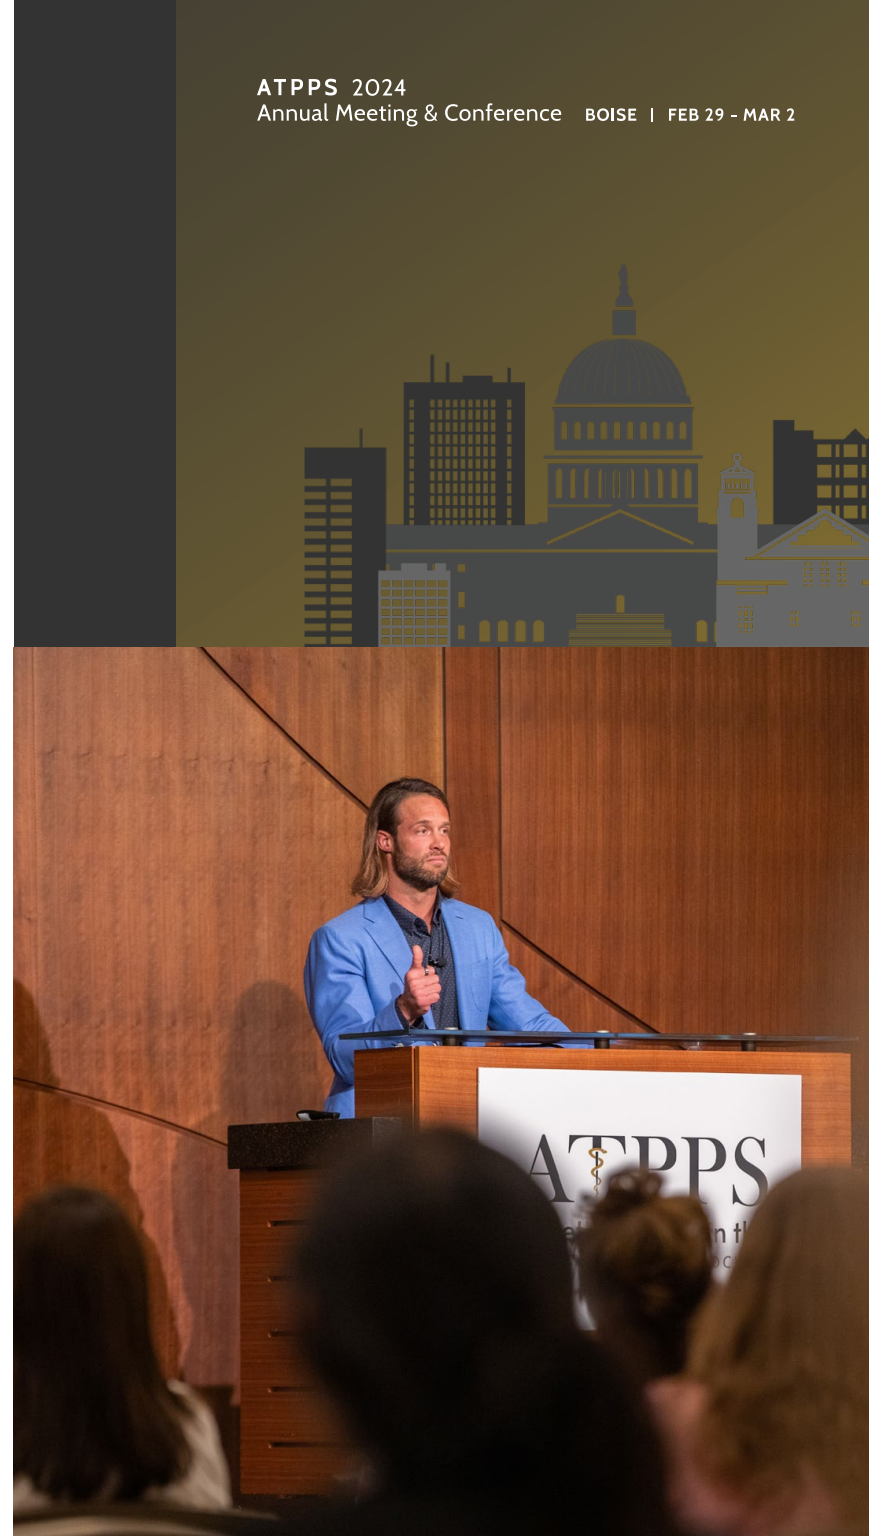

Patricia Northrup

Closing Keynote
Speaker - $5,000

Lieutenant Colonel Patricia Northrup has been speaking to audiences of all ages for more than 25 years about how the most ordinary ideas can be extraordinary successes. She has often been told how "lucky" she has been in her life to have achieved so much. But once you listen to her speak, you will learn that the secret to her success is simply turning life's normal rejections and failures to her advantage and seizing opportunities when they appear. Patricia is an expert on leadership in high-stress and dynamic situations, breaking the glass ceiling and developing positive, harmonious relationships between men and women in the workplace, and finding a way to win the race of life when the world is convinced you are the underdog.
